

It has been four weeks since school begin. We have already productively completed all these events, from the first two weeks' school registration, the third week's General Meeting, and last week's Confucius Memorial Ceremony. Even though there were some minor issues, we have overcome them with the help from staff and understanding from parents. Everything turned out pretty well. Well begun, half done. I hope we will continue to have a successful year.

2013 New Jersey Confucius Memorial Ceremony was great accomplished last week. Hope everyone have enjoyed the event. I would like to appreciate all helping parents prepared and set up for it and all student dancers' hard works during the past few weeks. MHCS is recognized by all local officials and visitors once again. Thank you very much.
