Rutgers Night Market Scheduled for April 14

Taiwanese-American Student Association from Rutgers University (RU TASA), a collegiate association that spreads awareness of Taiwanese culture at Rutgers, will sponsor a big event called Night Market that emulates the popular night markets of Taiwan. This year will be our 14th annual Night Market! There will be performances throughout the night, fun games, and authentic Taiwanese delicacies served fresh by local eateries.

This year's Night Market starts at 6:00 p.m on April 14th at Morrell St., New Brunswick between the Rutgers Student Center and where Au Bon Pain used to be. The rain date will be April 16th. The theme for this Night Market will be Kawaii Avenue! This means that there will be cute cartoon characters scattered down the street. This event is not limited to Taiwanese people. Everyone is welcome to experience Night Market and learn about Taiwanese culture and cuisine. The Taiwanese-American Student Association would be delighted to meet the students, parents, faculty and administration of Murray Hill Chinese School at Night Market. And please spread the word!
